1. RA Terms

- 1.1 The undersigned student agrees to accept a temporary appointment as a Resident Advisor (RA) at The Current Apartments subject to the terms and conditions contained herein. RA's agree to sign a housing license agreement and further agree to live in The Current and take board in the form of $350 in monthly CPP Dining Dollars as a condition of the RA position. The use of housing facilities is subject to the regulations contained in Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations.
- 1.2 RAs will receive in-kind support in the form of a single room within a Current apartment (including utilities and valet trash service) and $350 dining dollars monthly through Foundation Dining Services. Meal plans are active only when food services are open and serving contract meals. RAs need to budget use of their dining dollars or personal cash during opening and close down periods. Meal plan balances are prorated on a weekly basis; early exit from the position could result in the remaining dining dollars balance to be returned to Foundation Enterprises.
- 1.3 RAs will be allowed to select roommates to live in their apartment during the licensing period. Requested roommates must still go through the licensing process, pay any necessary fees, and sign all required documentation expected of residents. RAs may not request to live with their significant other. Should a vacancy come up within an RA apartment during the middle of the year, the open space will be offered to a resident on the Village licensing wait list. RA's may not select a significant other as a roommate. RA's found to be living with a significant other will be subject to disciplinary action and one or both parties will be required to transfer. An RA's significant other also may not living in the building(s) the RA is responsible for.
- 1.4 The RA is expected to train prior to the beginning of both the fall and spring semesters for training and hall preparation purposes. The specific training dates are outlined above and a complete training schedule will be sent out prior to the beginning of training. The RA will be able to move into their apartment space prior to the start of training to get settled.
- 1.5 During the dates of their RA appointment, the RA is expected to maintain a schedule of an average of twenty (20) hours a week. This time shall be distributed between a combination of on-duty and on-call time. A reasonable schedule would include a combination of patterns of time including on-duty commitments (i.e. meetings, advising students, etc.) and on-call commitments (being available to residents at varying intervals during the day and night). Licensee accepts the foregoing as a reasonable attempt to define a position that is not easily translated into an hourly basis or reduced to specific duties without gross oversimplification of the nature of the primary position. Licensee further recognizes the full opportunity to discuss serious deviations from the above with their assigned supervisor.

- 1.6 As The Current Apartments are open year-round RAs are required to serve on duty some portion of the break periods (Winter Break, Spring Break, government holidays, etc), with time to be equally divided among that hall team.

Additionally, RAs are encouraged to get involved in campus extracurricular activities. Any outside employment/involvement should be discussed with the RAs supervisor and shall not interfere with the duties and expectations of the RA role.
- 2.7 RAs will serve on duty weeknights and on duty weekends as assigned (equally with other team members). While on duty, RAs will remain on The Current property and will be available to address any concerns that should arise during their shift.
- 2.8 RAs will reserve time each for a weekly staff meeting. In the event a required class is only offered at this scheduled time, RAs may request approval to miss the staff meeting from their supervisor and will be expected to make up any content missed.
